Rearden Delivers Total Travel Experience

The Rearden Commerce Total Travel Experience goes well beyond online booking of air, hotel and car to address the changing demands of today’s corporate travelers. With the only integrated commerce platform and marketplace for services of all kinds, Rearden Commerce orchestrates all aspects of a trip including travel, dining, entertainment, car service and airport parking through a web-based personal assistant that understands the traveler’s preferences and manages the services booking; and then integrates the booked services seamlessly with the traveler’s calendar. Rearden also extends its reach to related employee services like web and audio conferencing and desktop shipping; and tracks spend across all services while applying corporate policy and offering preferred merchant discounts. Hundreds of corporations across the United States currently rely on the Rearden platform to deliver employee ease of use when booking travel and related services while enabling superior management of costs.
